position that was not allocated to each portfolio segment during the period of time in which it was being invested. Investment performance for these segments has been modified to reflect the effect of cash using the single asset portfolios as a proxy. Additional information regarding the policies for valuing investments, calculating performance, and preparing GIPS reports, as well as a complete list and description of the firm's composites and pooled funds is available upon request by contacting info@gwkinvest.com.

The three-year annualized standard deviation measures the variability of the composite and the benchmark returns over the preceding 36-month period. Gross returns are used for the composite calculation. The standard deviation measure is presented annually, for periods where 36 monthly returns are available.

The firm uses an asset-weighted standard deviation calculation to measure dispersion, which is reported on a yearly basis. Dispersion is used to measure the volatility of portfolio returns within the composite. Only portfolios that have been included in the composite for the full year are included in the dispersion calculation. Dispersion of N/A represents information not statistically meaningful due to an insufficient number of portfolios in the composite for the entire year.
